b. He reported that the staff study on the feasibility of discontinuing the differentiation between vouchered and unvouchered funds has been completed and should be in my hands within a few days.

c. Pat reported that the Office of Finance plans to move to the Key Building over the weekend of 9 April.

d. Pat also reported that the Chief Actuarial of the Department of the Treasury has been and continues to be very helpful in advising us on the actuarial aspects of our new early retirement program. He anticipated that shortly it might be necessary for us to formalize this arrangement with a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury. I agreed and said I would do this whenever he and the CIA Retirement Board so recommend.

3. I spent a great deal of time discussing the reception and handling of the Saigon evacuees, who are now scheduled to arrive in Washington sometime late tomorrow. To date, the FE Division and the Offices of Personnel, Security, and Medical Services have done a superb job, and I think the reception tomorrow will go smoothly. The greatest danger lies in the possibility that the press will get to the evacuees upon their arrival at Andrews Air Force Base.

Now DO wants him replaced because they are dissatisfied with his performance, behavior, etc. I encouraged Pat to make DO go on the line and state the reasons for removing [REDACTED]. I also told Pat that he should give some consideration to [REDACTED] reduction to grade GS-14.
